

Ever wonder why rent is so high?

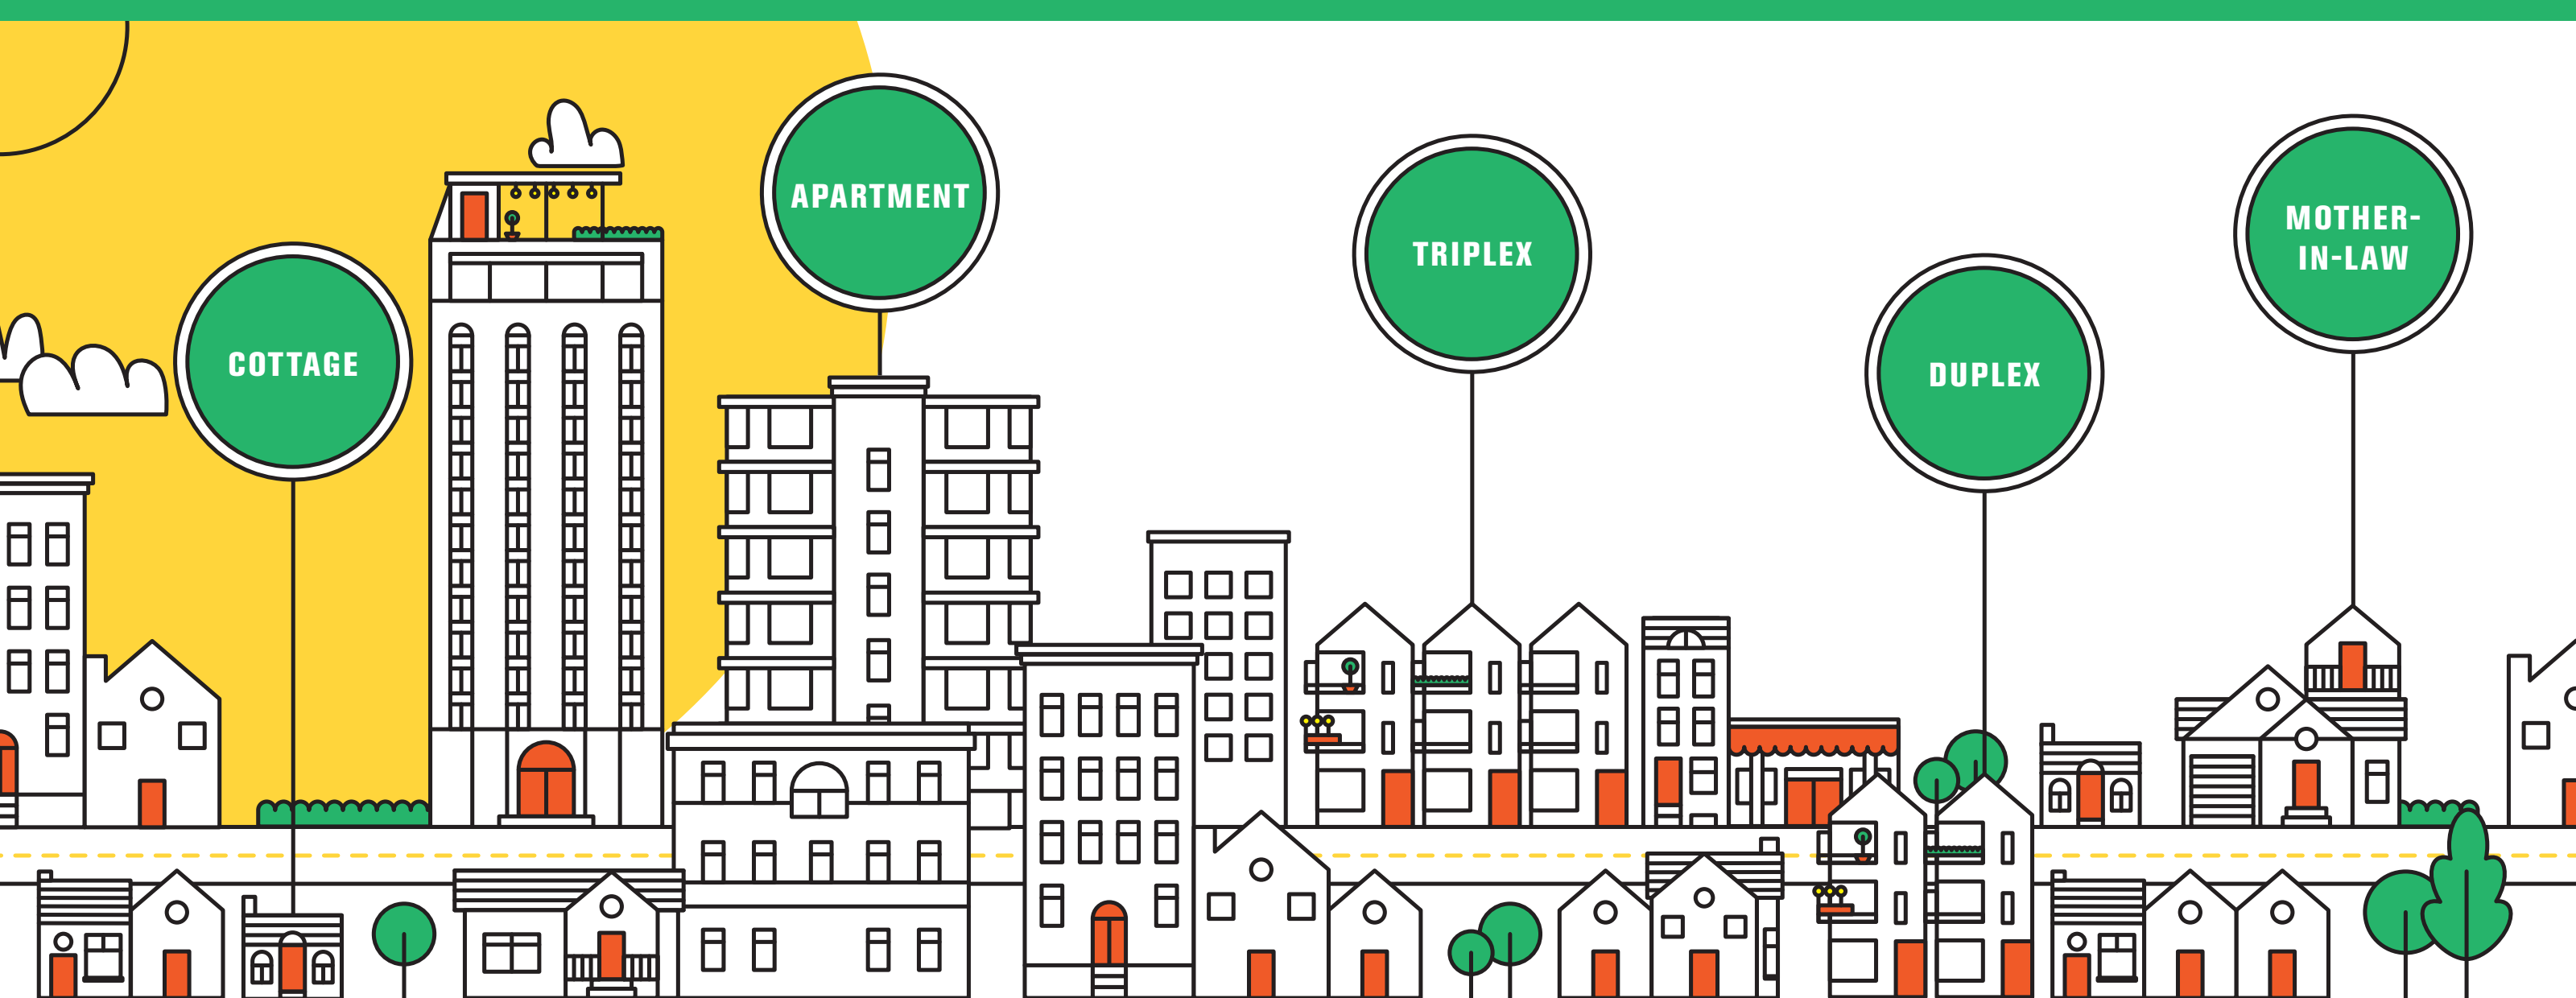

When there aren't enough homes for people, everybody competes for what's available and the rents go up.

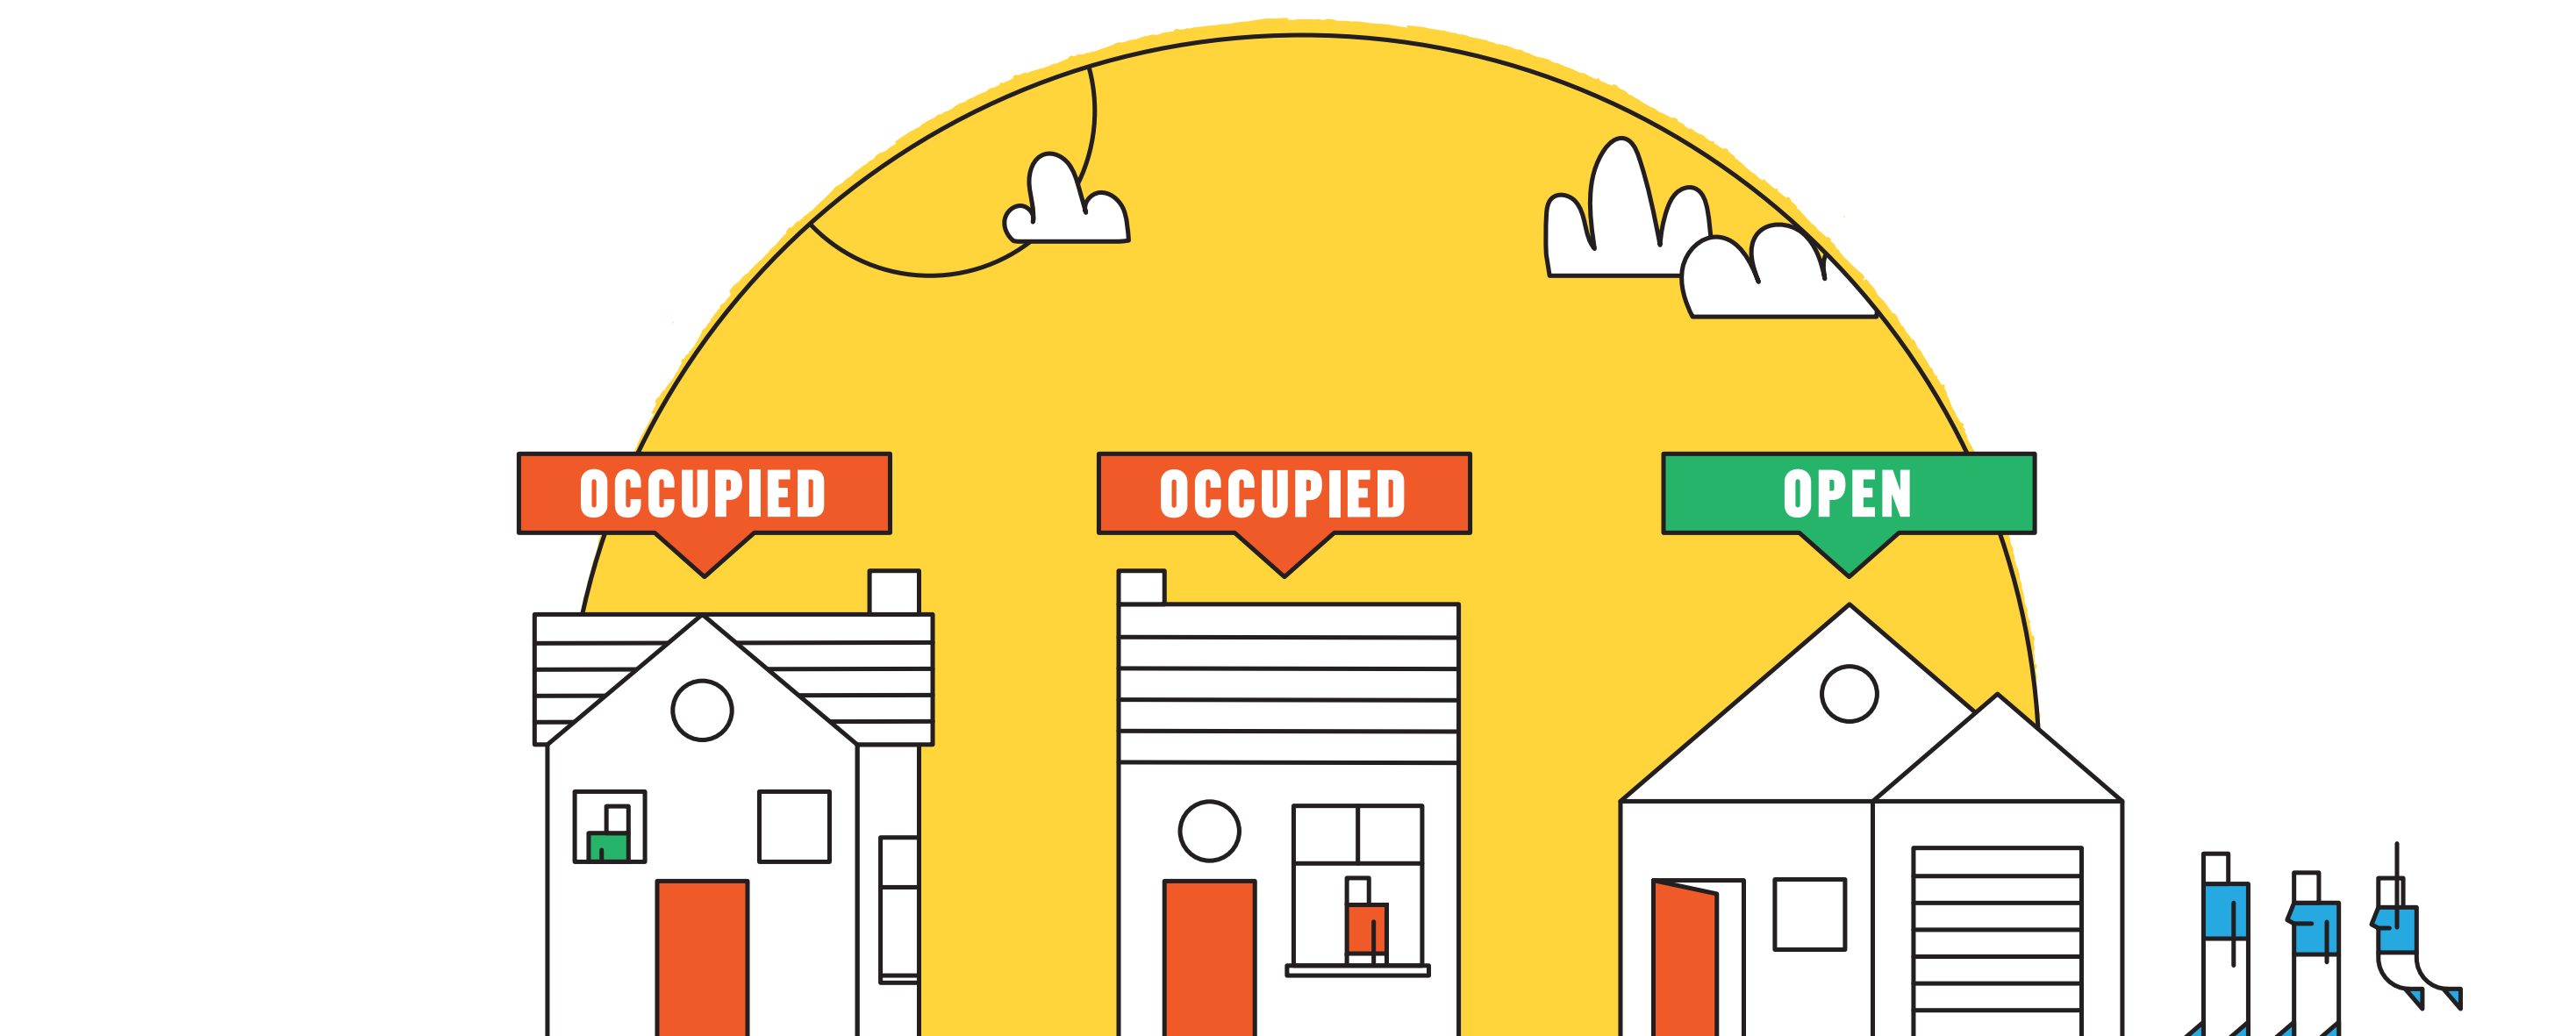

People are priced out of the city and drive farther and farther to get to work.

WE NEED MORE HOMES of all shapes and sizes.

More homes to go around means more of us, from all backgrounds and incomes, can stay and thrive in the city we love.

SHARE WITH A FRIEND

Visit sightline.org/morehomes to learn more